PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION MANUAL

Last updated 09 May 9, 2019

1. INTRODUCTION

The Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 (the "Act") seeks to promote a culture of transparency, accountability and good governance by giving effect to a person's right of access to information as contained in Section 32 of the South African Constitution.

In terms of Section 51(1) of the Act, all private bodies must compile and publish a manual setting out certain information prescribed by Section 51 of the Act. The Act further sets out the procedure to be followed when requesting information from a public or a private body and the prescribed fees.

For the avoidance of doubt, any reference in this manual to any information that is in addition to that specifically required in terms of Section 51 of the Act does not create any right or entitlement (contractual or otherwise) to receive such information, other than in terms of the Act.

The head of NORCROS SA (Proprietary) Limited (Registration number 1952/000012/07) ("Norcros SA"), as defined in the Act, has delegated his functions under the Act to the Designated Information Officer.

9. REQUEST PROCEDURE

A record, whether specifically listed in this manual or not, will only be made available subject to the provisions of the Act.

(a) Form of request

A request for access to a record must be made to the Designated Information Officer and sent to either the Norcros SA address or submitted to the electronic mail address set out above.

A person requesting access to a record held by Norcros SA ("Requester") must complete the prescribed Form attached to this manual or otherwise available from the SAHRC website. Not using the prescribed Form may result in a request being declined or delayed. The Form must be submitted with the request fee and a deposit (if applicable). The Requester must provide sufficient details on the request Form to enable the Designated Information Officer to identify the record and the Requester. The Requester should also indicate which form of access is required and specify a postal address, fax number or email address in South Africa. The Requester should also indicate if, in addition to a written reply, any other manner is to be used to inform the Requester and state the necessary particulars to be so informed.

The Requester must identify the right that is sought to be exercised or protected and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.

If a request is made on behalf of another person, the Requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the Requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the Designated Information Officer.

(b) Fees

A Requester who seeks access to a record containing personal information about that Requester is not required to pay the request fee.

Every other Requester, who is not requesting access to a record containing personal information about him/her or itself, must pay the required request fee as contained in Part III of Annexure "A" of the Regulations to the Act (published in Government Notice No. R.187 of 15 February 2002) ("the Regulations").

The Designated Information Officer will, by notice, require the Requester (other than a personal Requester) to pay the prescribed request fee (if any) before further processing the request.

Should access to a record/s be granted by Norcros SA, the Requester may be required to pay an access fee for the search and preparation of the records, and for the reproduction of the record/s. The access fee schedule can be accessed on the SAHRC website.

Furthermore, Norcros SA can withhold a record/s until such access fees have been paid.

Norcros SA will process the request for access to record/s within 30 (thirty) days and, unless the Requester has stated special reason to the satisfaction of the Designated Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time period not to be complied with.

Alternatively, the Requester shall be advised in writing, whether access to a record/s is granted or denied.

(c) Refusal of access to records

In terms of Part 3, Chapter 4 of the Act, Norcros SA may and in certain instances must refuse access to records on the grounds set out in the Act. The grounds include:

- Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third person who is a natural, juristic or deceased person which would involve unreasonable disclosure of personal information of the natural or juristic person.
- Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party.
- Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and protection of property.
- Mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings.
- Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a private body including a record that contains trade secrets or financial or technical information of the private body.

10. RECORDS OR INFORMATION NOT FOUND

If, after all reasonable steps to locate a record have been taken, and no record is found, then the Designated Information Officer will notify the Requester, by way of an affirmation or affidavit, stating that access to the requested record cannot be provided. Such affirmation or affidavit will include a detailed account on the steps taken trying to locate the record.

Should the record be found, the Designated Information officer shall provide the Requester access to the record, unless access to the record is refused on the grounds permitted by the Act.

11. AVAILABILITY OF THE MANUAL

The manual is available for inspection by the general public, during office hours and free of charge, at the offices of Norcros SA. Copies of the manual may be made, subject to the prescribed fees.

Copies may also be accessed at the Norcros SA website (norcros.co.za) and can be requested from the South African Human Rights Commission.

12 PRESCRIBED FORMS AND FEE STRUCTURE

The forms and the fee structure prescribed under the Act are available from the Government Gazette, or at the website of the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development under the 'regulations' section as well as the SAHRC website.
