Jing Shi Temple

Fairlawns Boutique Hotel and Spa is the epitome of a hidden gem – tucked away in Sandton’s tranquil and leafy northern suburbs. Founded over 19 years ago, it is a well-established contender in the five-star boutique hotel market, popular with international travellers and Johannesburg’s well-heeled socialites. Each of the 41 luxury rooms has its own theme, with names like Marrakech, Burkina Faso and the Maison de Ville, guests are truly transported to a different world on arrival. Every piece of furniture and decorative object has been handpicked to carry the theme of each suite.
